Rules and Regulations for Les Marmitons of New Jersey

Les Marmitons is a gastronomic and social club dedicated to advancing the knowledge and experience of fine foods and wines among its members. As such, the club requires active participation from all members and guests at the regular monthly cooking events, responsibility to follow membership and reservation procedures and the avoidance of inappropriate behavior including excessive consumption, rowdy behavior and the conducting of commercial business. To this end, members and guests understand and agree to the following rules and regulations:

1. Members will wear appropriate and clean attire to all cooking events including their Les Marmitons jacket and toque. Additionally, members will provide their own knives, a chefs and paring knife being the minimum requirement.

2. Guests will wear appropriate and clean attire including a cooking jacket or apron and a head covering.

3. Members and guests will appreciate that to ensure participation opportunity to all, attendance at monthly cooking events will be limited to twenty nine (29) paid members and guests, exclusive of guest chef(s) and dishwasher(s), and that a firm and equitable reservation policy is therefore required and will be adhered to as follows:

a. All executive members will be guaranteed a reservation for each monthly event and are expected to attend. If circumstances prevent their attendance, they must cancel not later than twenty-four (24) hours in advance of the event.

b. All non-executive members must make a reservation not less than five (5) business days in advance of the event. Reservations will be accepted on a first-come basis. The member will be placed on a wait list once the event is fully booked and will be informed of that action.

c. All non-members will be placed on a wait list until four (4) business days in advance of the event at which time reservations will be granted on a first-come basis if space permits. Members and Non-members are required to pay in advance via PayPal to lesmarmitonsnj@gmail.com. Payment must be confirmed no later than noon on the Sunday prior to the event. A confirmation will be sent upon verification from paypal. Be sure to designate you are Sending to a Friend.

d. Any member or guest holding a reservation may cancel up to twenty-four (24) hours in advance of the event without penalty. Any member or guest failing to cancel/attend a reserved event will be billed for and be responsible to pay the full fee for that event.

4. In order to manage club responsibility and liability regarding the serving of alcoholic beverages, such will be provided by and service controlled only by those managing the event. Members and guests may not help themselves to the provided wines, may not consume in the kitchen and may not bring into, consume, or offer to others, any other alcoholic beverage either in or on the property of the facility. Failure to adhere to this policy will result in ejection from the event and could result in permanent dismissal of a member. A dismissed member is not entitled to any refund of dues or fees paid.

5. To ensure sufficient help to clean up after an event, and to do so on an equitable basis throughout the year, all attending members and guests are required to stay in the hall until all cleanup activities have been completed.

6. All dues and fees are due at the event attended and a member is not on good standing while amounts are owed. Payment via PayPal is required. Any returned checks will be subject to a $30 returned items fee.
